WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY (VIGIL MECHANISM)

01. INTRODUCTION

A whistleblower is a person who exposes misconduct, alleged dishonest or illegal activity occurring in an organization. The alleged misconduct may be classified in many ways; viz a violation of a law, rule, regulation and/or a direct threat to public interest, such as health and safety violations and corruption. Whistleblowers may make their allegations internally or externally .

The Internal whistleblowers are those, who report misconduct on a fellow employee or superior within the company. There are some reasons to believe that people are more likely to take action with respect to unacceptable behavior, within an organization, if there is a complaint systems that offer not just options but with absolute confidentiality.

External whistleblowers, however, report misconduct to outside persons or entities by reporting to lawyers, the media, law enforcement or watchdog agencies, or other local, state agencies. In some cases, external whistle blowing is encouraged by offering monetary reward.

The Company has adopted a code of conduct for its Directors and Employees which lays down the guiding principles and standards that should govern the actions of the Company and its employees. The Company is committed to develop a culture where it is safe for the directors and employees to raise their concerns about any poor or unacceptable practice or misconduct.

The purpose of this policy is to provide a framework to promote responsible and secure internal whistle blowing. This will enable Directors and employees to report to management about the unethical behaviour / acts, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the company's code of conduct or ethics policy.

Section 177(9) of the Companies Act, 2013, Rule 7 of the Companies (Meetings of Board and Powers) Rule, 2014 read with clause 49 of the Listing Agreement entered in to with the Stock Exchanges require every listed company to have a whistle Blower policy and establish a vigil mechanism to enable the Directors and Employees of the Company to ventilate their genuine concerns and grievances .
